THREE $10,000 DAMAGE SUITS Against the Norfolk and Western in Prince George-Appeal Taken.

orrespondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Petersburg, Va., April 22.—Three heavy damage suits against the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company have been instituted in the Circuit Court of Prince George county, which will be called for trial at the term of said court which commences on the 7th of May. One is brought by an employee named Archer Griftin, who was injured by the caving in of a sand-bank in that county on the 7th of March, 1890; the other two by the administrators of John Dawson and Lewis Stewart, who leat their lives by the same accident. The damage claimed in each of these suits is $10,000. Griffin and the two men who were killed were all colored. The plaintiffs in these cases are represented by Mr. P. A. L. Smith, of Danville, and the railroad company by Mr. George S. Bernard, of Petersburg, and Judge W. H. Mann, of Nottoway county.

To-day Judge Rives had entered in the County Court of Prince George county the proper order confirming the report of the commissioners in the case of the Postal Telegraph Company against the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company. The amount of damages assessed by the commissioners for the right of way along the line of the railroad through the county—a distance of nearly fiteen miles—was 200, a nominal sum. The defendant filed sundry exceptions to this report and also a bill of exceptions to the Court's action in overruling these exceptions and six-taking the report of the commissioners. The railroad company asked for a suspension of the order until the first day of the May term of the Circuit Court, to which an appeal will now be taken. Judge Rives granted the order of suspension. There is no doubt that the case will again go up to the Court of Appeals.

MERGURENT.

Whilst there is no "boom" in Leesburg, and the county-seat of Loudoun is not being transformed "on paper" into a city with many and sundry industries "to be secured," the evidence of advancement and improvement is apparent. Many new buildings have been erected during the past few years—principally private residences. Electric lights will shortly be introduced, and the town is moving on steadily in the column of substantial evelopment.

Circuit Court—Judge Keith—commences here on the fourth Monday (27th) of this month. The docket is apparently light.

The weather in this section evinces that spring has opened. The trees are budding out rapidly, and the prospect for an abundant supply of fruit is good.

Mr. Cardwell telegraphed to-day to Rev. T. H. Waiker, of Pelham, N. The plan was for the preacher to board the train at Pelham and perform the marriage acremony while the train was rushing on its way, but it so happened that the train was delayed at Pelham and the knot was tied on the Pullman car while the train was at the wation. The couple received the congratulations of the passengers and continued their journey to the South.

TRUSTEES' SALE

A LARGE NUMBER

Immediately after the foregoing sale—say at 5 o'clock P. M.—I will sell, on the premises, about FIFTEEN VERY PRETTY LOTS on Thirtieth and Thirty-first streets between R and S streets, fronting each from 20 to 25 feet to suit the views of bidders. These lots are very astractive, as the location is elevated and dry, and as the developments being made all around insure the steady and continuous improvement of this property. If you wish to speculate buy here, for there is sure profit; or if you desire to build a home for your wite and babies then secure one of these lots.

N. W. Bowe, Real Estate Auctioneers. UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE RESI-

LIN STREET AND PARK AVENUE

We will sell by auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, April 30, 1891, at 5 o'clock P. M., the MAGNIFICENT BUILD-ING LOTS above referred to, fronting together 105 feet and situated on the cast side of Harrison street between Franklin street and Park avenue, in the midst of the choicest surrounlings, and with a future as free from the likelihood of unpleasant or injurious happenings as any pertion of the city, being in immediate proximity to a great number of recently-built, bandsome, and in many cases expensive residences.

It is only necessary to examine these lots to appreciate their advantages of location and surroundings. We can candidly say that this sale presents the unusual opportunity for buying residence lots very close to, and almost as good as, Franklin-street lots at half the cost; and remember that Harrison street is not a "cross street" in the ordinary acceptation of that term.

This property will be divided into lote of 27% feet each, and they have a depth of 150 feet to a wide aflet. For a plat showing particulars, &c., call on either of the auctioneers.
